This complaint was filed with the Judicial Council of the Sixth Circuit pursuant to the Judicial Councils Reform and Judicial Conduct and Disability Act of 1980, P.L. 96-458, as amended by the Judicial Improvements Act of 2002, Pub. L. No. 107-203, the Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings, and the Rules Governing Complaints of Judicial Misconduct adopted by the Judicial Council of the Sixth Circuit.

This complaint was filed by the plaintiff in a civil action against the district judge who presided over the case. However, complainant most recently notified the undersigned that he wishes to withdraw the complaint.

Upon consideration, the complaint will be withdrawn pursuant to Rule 27(a) of the Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings. No basis upon which to identify a complaint pursuant to Rule 5 of the Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings exists in this case. See Rule 27(a), Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings.

Accordingly, the complaint is withdrawn.
