Before: NORRIS and GIBBONS, Circuit Judges; TODD, District Judge.*

PER CURIAM. Lydia Wiseman was employed as an environmental specialist at Wayne Supply Company (“Wayne Supply”) from October 1995 until December 2000. Wiseman filed a complaint alleging that Wayne Supply violated the Kentucky Civil Rights Act, Ky. Rev. Stat. Chapter 344, by discriminating against her on the basis of her sex and by creating a hostile work environment in the Jefferson County, Kentucky, Circuit Court on February 15, 2001. Wayne Supply removed the action to the United States District Court for the Western District of Kentucky on March 2, 2001. Wayne Supply subsequently filed a motion for summary judgment on May 15, 2003. The district court granted the motion on January 12, 2004.

*The Honorable James D. Todd, United States District Judge for the Western District of Tennessee, sitting by designation.

Having had the benefit of oral argument, and having studied the record on appeal and the briefs of the parties, we are not persuaded that the district court erred in granting summary judgment to Wayne Supply. Because the reasons for this determination have been fully articulated by the district court, the issuance of a detailed opinion by this court would be duplicative and would serve no useful purpose. Accordingly, we affirm the judgment of the district court on the basis of the reasoning set out by that court in its opinion and order entered on January 12, 2004.
