MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

This complaint of judicial misconduct was filed by [REDACTED] (“complainant”) against the Honorable [REDACTED] (“subject judges”), pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 351. The complaint alleges that the subject judges denied the complainant access to the courts by refusing to hear his appeal from a district-court judgment.

After conducting an initial review, the chief judge may dismiss a misconduct complaint as to which he concludes: (A) that the claimed conduct, even if it occurred, “is not prejudicial to the effective and expeditious administration of the business of the courts”; (B) that the complaint “is directly related to the merits of a decision or procedural ruling”; (C) that the complaint is “frivolous,” a term that applies to charges that are wholly unsupported; or (D) that the complaint “lack[s] sufficient evidence to raise an inference that misconduct has occurred.” Rule 11(c)(1)(A)-(D), Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings; see 28 U.S.C. § 352(a), (b).

An initial review of the record reveals that the complainant appealed from a district-court judgment without prepaying the appellate filing fee. The court of appeals construed the complainant’s appellate brief as a motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis and denied the motion. The complainant moved for reconsideration, and a court-of-appeals panel comprising the subject judges denied the motion.

This judicial-misconduct complaint challenges the propriety of the subject judges’ decision to deny the complainant’s motion for reconsideration. Accordingly, it is subject to dismissal under Rule 11(c)(1)(B). See also 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(A)(ii). Any challenge to the merits of judges’ rulings is outside the scope of judicial-misconduct proceedings. See Rule 3(h)(3)(A), Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings. The Judicial Council is not a court and has no jurisdiction to review any decision by a judge or panel of judges. See In re Complaint of Judicial Misconduct, 858 F.2d 331, 331-32 (6th Cir. 1988).

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the complaint be dismissed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(A)(ii) and Rule 11(c)(1)(B) of the Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings.
