MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

This complaint of judicial misconduct was filed by [REDACTED] (“complainant”) against the Honorable [REDACTED] (“subject judge”), pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 351. The complaint alleges that the subject judge’s denial of various motions in the complainant’s civil-rights action constituted an abuse of discretion, was inconsistent with local rules, and exhibited bias against the complainant.

After conducting an initial review, the chief judge may dismiss a misconduct complaint as to which he concludes: (A) that the claimed conduct, even if it occurred, “is not prejudicial to the effective and expeditious administration of the business of the courts”; (B) that the complaint “is directly related to the merits of a decision or procedural ruling”; (C) that the complaint is “frivolous,” a term that applies to charges that are wholly unsupported; or (D) that the complaint “lack[s] sufficient evidence to raise an inference that misconduct has occurred.” Rule 11(c)(1)(A)-(D), Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings; see 28 U.S.C. § 352(a), (b).

An initial review of the record reveals that the complainant filed a civil-rights action that was assigned to the subject judge. The complainant filed numerous pre-trial motions, most of which the subject judge denied. In an order that seems to have precipitated this judicial-misconduct complaint, the subject judge denied the complainant’s motions (1) for an extension of time, (2) for reconsideration of a motion to compel, (3) for recusal, (4) to take judicial notice, (5) to compel discovery, and (6) to summarily dismiss the defendants’ motion for summary judgment.

This complaint challenges the propriety of the subject judge’s rulings on motions in the complainant’s civil-rights action. Accordingly, it is subject to dismissal under Rule 11(c)(1)(B). See also 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(A)(ii). Any challenge to the merits of a judge’s rulings is outside the scope of judicial-misconduct proceedings. See Rule 3(h)(3)(A), Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings. The Judicial Council is not a court and has no jurisdiction to review any decision by a judge. See In re Complaint of Judicial Misconduct, 858 F.2d 331, 331-32 (6th Cir. 1988).

To the extent that the complaint alleges bias, it is subject to dismissal under Rule 11(c)(1)(C) as wholly unsupported. See also 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(A)(iii).

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the complaint be dismissed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(A)(ii) & (iii) and Rule 11(c)(1)(B) & (C) of the Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings.

Chief Judge
