MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

This complaint of judicial misconduct was filed by [REDACTED] (“complainant”) against the Honorable [REDACTED] (“subject judge”), pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 351. The complaint describes the complainant’s efforts to prove that the transcript of her civil trial is inaccurate. The only allegation against the subject judge is that he denied the complainant’s “motion on the inaccuracy of the transcript.”

After conducting an initial review, the chief judge may dismiss a misconduct complaint as to which he concludes: (A) that the claimed conduct, even if it occurred, “is not prejudicial to the effective and expeditious administration of the business of the courts”; (B) that the complaint “is directly related to the merits of a decision or procedural ruling”; (C) that the complaint is “frivolous,” a term that applies to charges that are wholly unsupported; or (D) that the complaint “lack[s] sufficient evidence to raise an inference that misconduct has occurred.” Rule 11(c)(1)(A)-(D), Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings; see 28 U.S.C. § 352(a), (b).

An initial review of the record reveals that the complainant filed a civil action that was assigned to the subject judge. The defendant prevailed at trial, and the judgment was affirmed on appeal. The complainant then sought an audio recording of the trial and an unedited rough draft of the trial transcript, but court personnel and the court reporter advised her that neither existed. The complainant filed a motion asking the subject judge “to check the inaccuracy of the Official Transcript with the shorthand, unofficial transcript.” Although the subject judge denied the motion, his order stated that “the shorthand notes that have been provided to the Court and read by two Official Court Reporters” confirmed that the transcript was accurate.

Because it challenges the subject judge’s ruling on the complainant’s motion, this judicial-misconduct complaint is subject to dismissal under Rule 11(c)(1)(B). See also 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(A)(ii). Any challenge to the merits of a judge’s rulings is outside the scope of judicial-misconduct proceedings. See Rule 4(b)(1), Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings. The Judicial Council is not a court and has no jurisdiction to review any decision by a judge. See In re Complaint of Judicial Misconduct, 858 F.2d 331, 331-32 (6th Cir. 1988).

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the complaint be dismissed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(A)(ii) and Rule 11(c)(1)(B) of the Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings.
