MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

This complaint of judicial misconduct was filed by [redacted] ("complainant") against [redacted] ("subject judge 1"), and [redacted] ("subject judge 2"), under 28 U.S.C. § 351.

After conducting an initial review, the chief judge may dismiss a complaint of judicial misconduct as to which he concludes: (A) that the claimed conduct, even if it occurred, "is not prejudicial to the effective and expeditious administration of the business of the courts"; (B) that the complaint "is directly related to the merits of a decision or procedural ruling"; (C) that the complaint is "frivolous," a term that applies to charges that are wholly unsupported; or (D) that the complaint "lack[s] sufficient evidence to raise an inference that misconduct has occurred." Rules 11(c)(1)(A)–(D), Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings ("Judicial-Conduct Rules"); see 28 U.S.C. § 352(a), (b).

The subject judges have presided in the complainant's underlying civil case. Subject judge 2 handled the case initially and dismissed several of the claims. The case was then reassigned to subject judge 1 and is ongoing.

This misconduct complaint alleges that the subject judges made false statements and mischaracterized the complainant's arguments when issuing rulings in the underlying case. It suggests that these errors are attributable to bias.

This complaint warrants dismissal. The complainant's allegations challenge the merits of the subject judges' decisions in the underlying case. The judicial-complaint process may not be used to challenge the merits of judicial decisions made in underlying proceedings; such decisions are not the proper subject of a complaint of judicial misconduct. See Judicial Conduct Rule 4(b)(1). The Judicial Council is not a court and has no jurisdiction to review the subject judges' rulings or to grant relief requested in the underlying case. See In re Complaint of Judicial Misconduct, 858 F.2d 331 (6th Cir. 1988). These allegations warrant dismissal because they are merits-related. See 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(A)(ii); Judicial-Conduct Rule 11(c)(1)(B).

To the extent the complaint alleges the subject judges acted with a discriminatory or biased motive, the claims lack any factual support. They are therefore dismissed as lacking sufficient evidence to raise an inference that misconduct has occurred. See 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(A)(iii); Judicial-Conduct Rule 11(c)(1)(D).

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the complaint be dismissed under 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(A)(ii)–(iii) and Judicial-Conduct Rules 11(c)(1)(B) and (D).

/s/ Jeffrey S. Sutton
Chief Judge
